What is a Counselor-in-Training and Jr. Counselor-in-Training ?

A Counselor-in-Training is an Assistant to the Counselors during classes. A CIT has many responsibilities along with attending classes. CIT'S should be ages 16-18 (depending upon the amount of applications, 15 year olds may apply). Students choose four classes a day to attend and the other two periods per day are chosen for you...you are an assistant in those classes.

In exchange for assisting in those classes, your tuition is reduced to $500.00.

Duties of CIT:

- Arrive early every day and assist in the morning greeting
- In charge of lunch procedures and clean up
- Stay until 3:30 pm every day for camp clean up
- Every Wednesday a mandatory staff meeting from 3:30 pm - 4:15 pm

A Jr. Counselor in Training is an Assistant to the CIT's. A Jr. CIT has some responsibilities along with attending classes. Jr. CIT's should be ages 13-15. Students choose six classes a day to attend. There is no tuition break for Jr. CIT's.

Pre-Workshop CIT introduction meeting: Wednesday, June 21 5:00 pm - 6:00 pm

Dates & Times

Monday, June 26 to Friday, July 14 9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Arts Festival Day ~ Saturday, July 15 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

(No Classes on Tuesday, July 4 ~ HAPPY FOURTH OF JULY)

Whether you are chosen to be a CIT or not, please be sure to REGISTER as a student. Your $300 deposit will secure your spot at camp.

Submitting an application doesn't automatically mean that you will become a CIT.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: May 1, 2017

We will notify you after May 8, 2017

Remember....4 periods a day are classes that you are attending. The other two periods you are assisting. Please let us know if you are interested in On The Scene (this class has limited spaces).

Again, please be sure to register and send in your class schedule as soon as you receive it.

Not everyone who applies can be accepted as a Counselor-in-Training.
